THREE INQUESTS.

THE MURDERER ESCAPES.

Two Men Die Suddenly From the Effects of Excesslve Drlnking.

Coroner Meredith went to Whittier yesterday to hold an inquest on the body of James E. Miles, who was killed by George Parks in his saloon on Tuesday evening. The testimony in the case was to the effect that just about dark Miles was in the saloon when Parks, the proprietor, entered, and drawing a pistol pointed it at Miles and shot him, at the same time swearing and saying, "You want to shoot Billy, do you?" Miles fell to the floor, having been instantly killed. The "Billy" referred to was William Le Van, partner of Parks in the saloon business, with whom deceased was scuffling at the time Parks entered the saloon. Deceased was quite drunk at the time, but none of the witnesses to the shooting knew of any reason why Parks should shoot Miles. One of the witnesses, William Cooper, testified that he met Parks at Norwalk on Tuesday morning, and Parks had said that he was going to shoot three men by the names of Cox, Miles and Lively.

All the testimony given at the inquest was to the effect that the murder was entirely unprovovoked, so far as any one could tell, and the Coroner's Jury rendered a verdict charging Parks with murder.

From the parties who were present at the shooting it was learned that as soon as Parks fired the shot which entered Miles' brain he turned and ran, and no one had presence of mind enough to start in pursuit. The consequence is that up to a late hour last night the murderer was at large, although as soon as the matter was reported Sheriff Kays sent several of his best deputies on a search for him. So much time elapsed, however, before the search was taken up and it having been after dark when Parks fled, there was no certainity as to the direction he took in his flight. It was, however, hoped that traces of him might be found before he managed to cross the line into Mexico, where it was supposed he was heading.

The citizens of Whittier were not any too well pleased when the saloon started there a short time ago, and the murder within its walls did not make them feel any more kindly toward it In fact they made up their minds that it should not stand any longer, and yesterday morning the male residents gathered around it, and without any excitement, and in the calmest manner possible, tore it down and carrying it piece by piece across the street set fire to the debris, including the stock which was on hand. Even the flooring, on which were the stains of Miles' life fluid, was consumed. During all the proceedings the lady members of the families stood in the doorways and waved their handkerchiefs encouragingly at the men. When Coroner Meredith reached the spot matters stood in this way, and he had hardly time to view the stains on the flooring before it was placed on the funeral pile. Yesterday was an eventful day in Whittier.

Other Inquests.

Coroner Meredith held an inquest last night on the body of Wm. Moffatt Reilly, who died suddenly at the County Hospital on Tuesday night. Deceased was addicted to the use of intoxicants and during the last rainstorm went on a spree and caught a severe cold. He was taken to the County Hospital and died upon his arrival. The Coroner's jury found that he came to his death from natural causes.

Coroner Meredith also held an inquest on the body of William James Berry, who died suddenly, yesterday morning, at the Arlington House. Deceased was a native of New York, and had been drinking to excess. He had been ailing for some time. and preparations were being made to take him to the County Hospital when he died. The jury rendered a verdict of death from natural causes.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Edward Rodenback becomes Dispondent and Shoots Himself.

A young man named Edward Rodenback came to this city about a week ago from Pennsylvania. On his way here he met a gentleman named Mr. Slocum with whom he has been rooming at No. 44 Buena Vista street, but who went to Santa Ana yesterday morning. A little after 12 o'clock yesterday, Rodenback attempted to kill himself. He fired five shots into different parts of the room with a 22-calibre pistol and then shot himself in the left side near the heart. A physician was called in and made an external examination of the wound which he pronounced not fatal. Rodenback's father, Mr. Thos. Rodenback who lives at No. 1222 Leigh High street, Eastern Phyladelphia was telegraphed to, but up to a late hour no answer had been received. It appears that Rodenback has been discouraged at not finding work and being out of funds, thought he would end his existance. His friend Slocum stated that in the morning he seemed in good spirits, but he knew there was a slight trouble which sometimes made Rodenbach despondent, but would not divulge what the trouble was. Late last night he was progressing favorable. Before attempting suicide he wrote a letter to his father, saying that he had made a mistake in coming here. His money was all gone and he had rather die than go back and be arrested by his wife. He sent love to his father and mother. What the trouble with his wife he would not state, but it is evident that lack of funds was the cause of the attempted suicide.

At the Azusa.

EDITORS HERALD: Our town, which for the last three months has lain dormant, is now on the move again. The famous Azusa water war is over, and peace again reigns in this beautiful valley. Our oranges are unfrozen and our strawberries fast ripening. Our visiting invalids are rapidly convalescing, and are gradually leaving us for home, perhaps to return next year and find the healthy little infant transformed into a full-sized man.

Azusa is bound to grow, as is every other town in Southern California. We have a grand State of boundless resources. California will, in less time than seems probable, be the largest State in point of population in the Union. Naturally the Southern part will absorb by far the greater part of the influx.

The HERALD is gaining in circulation here daily. People appreciate its stand for local matters, and are willing to stand by it.

Yesterday I heard from an unquestionable source that in less than a fortnight ground will be broken for a brick block to be erected by the Azusa Land and Water Company; also that a bank, with a large capital, is being organized, to occupy part of this building. A $6000 church is also one of the certainties of the future.

These improvements, added to our four miles of cement sidewalks and sewer pipes, graded streets, first-class hotel, pure water, and, above all, good climate, are certain to bring Azusa to the front.

More when the boom is further developed. R. B. N.

After the reading of the several reports, Bro. Mackay, in behalf of Los Angeles Lodge, presented the Recorder-elect, Walter Devereux, with a fine gold watch and chain. The chain on one side had the emblems of the parent order—anchor and shield—and on the reverse side the emblems of the Select Knights. On the inside case of the watch was the following inscription: "From the members of Los Angeles Lodge No. 55 A. O. U. W., a token of esteem, 1888." After the presentation Bro. Devereux was so taken by surprise that it was with much feeling that he replied in a few well-chosen words of gratitude. At the close of the Lodge all were invited by Bro. Devereux to an oyster supper, at which toasts and speeches were in order.

IN CONGRESS.

Senate Passes Direct Tax Refunding Bill.

THEOBE-CARLISLE CONTEST.

[Associated Press Dispatches to the HERALD]

WASHINGTON, January 18.—In the Senate to-day a bill was passed reducing the charges for passports from $5 to $1.

The bill for refunding the direct tax of 1861 was taken up, the question being on Chandler's motion to recommit the bill. The motion was rejected. The question was then taken on the amendment offered by Edmunds requiring all claims to be filed within six years and agreed to. Several amendments of a verbal character were also agreed to.

Stone, of Missouri, from the Committee on Public Lands reported a resolution calling on the Secretary of the Interior for information as to what legislation is necessary for the disposal of public timber lands so as to secure at the same time the preservation of natural forest lands at the headwaters of navigable rivers and put within the reach of settlers legal means of providing themselves with timber for building and domestic purposes. Adopted.

Vance offered an amendment to the bill for refunding the direct tax of 1861, extending the provisions of the bill to the cotton tax collected under the law of 1862 and subsequent laws. He said that if the direct tax was to be refunded, this cotton tax, which is also a direct tax, ought to be refunded. George and Berry advocated this. Brown and Morgan, while believing the cotton tax to be refunded, thought the proposed amendment would defeat the pending bill. Sherman vigorously opposed the amendment. Beck thought the pending bill should not be encumbered with anything else. Voorhees' views were the same and after further debate the amendment was rejected, 38 to 16. Further amendments offered by Chandler and Plumb were rejected and the bill passed, 48 to 10. The negatives were those of Berry, Blair, Jones of Arkansas, Paddock, Platt, Plumb, Saulsbury, Tell r, Vest and Wilson of Maryland. The bill directs the Secretary of the Treasury to credit to each State and Territory and to the District of Columbia a sum equal to all collections made therefrom or from citizens or inhabitants thereof of other persons under the direct tax of August 5, 1861. It remits all moneys still due the United States under such act, and it appropriates the amount necessary for the reimbursement of the sums collected directly from the individuals, to be held in trust by the State for the benefit of the persons from whom they were collected, or their legal representatives.

Senator Plumb asked unanimous consent to submit a preamble and resolution setting forth that the Secretary of the Treaury, in accordance with the views of the President, has paid out of revenues collected from imports the sum of $2,852,015 in premiums to holders of Government bonds, which sum, if paid out for 4 per cent. bonds, in accordance with the manifest wording and intention of the Refunding Act, makes possible not only the payment of such bonds as fast as any surplus available for such a purpose accumulates in the Treasury, but also the refunding at the same rate of the interest, thus saving to taxpayers more than $200,000,000, said Refunding Act had been so altered and published in the statutes at large, as to read, "payable at the pleasure of the United States after thirty years," instead of "for thirty years," thus entirely subverting the manifest meaning of the provision of the act. The resolution calls for a committee of five to make a careful examination of the subject. The resolution was not received.

Among the bills introduced and referred was one by Hoar to provide for inquests under national authority.

The Blair Educational bill was taken up and Brown addressed the Senate in support of it. At the conclusion of Brown's remarks, Blair continued his speech in support of the bill.

Sherman, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported an amendment to the Deficiency bill appropriating $50,000 to defray the expenses of the commission to attend the International Exhibition at Melbourne this year. Referred, and the Senate then adjourned.

The House.

WASHINGTON, January 18.—The views of the minority of the Election Committee of the Thoebe-Carlisle contested election case were presented. The report says that had the case been submitted to the committee on the record as made at the beginning of the present session of Congress, there would not have been probably a dissenting vote. The vote would have been unanimous for the resolution adopted by the majority, but at the first meeting of the committee the contestant made a strong ex parte showing. The minority do not see why, if the charges be untrue, the contestee should so persistently oppose the investigation and his opposition is to their minds so strongly corroborative of the claims made by the contestant as to restrain them from supporting the majority resolution without inquiry. Precedents are quoted in support of the course recommended by the minority. In view of all the facts, the minority feels obliged, in what it believes to be the interests of exact and equal justice to withhold its consent to the majority report. Rowell, in a supplementary report, states that he concurs in the majority report, only dissenting from practicing disputed questions of fact upon ex parte testimony.

The Agricultural Experimental Stations bill, appropriating $585,000 to carry into effect the act of March, 1887, to establish experimental stations in connection with the colleges of the different States, established under the provisions of the act of 1862, was passed.

Crisp, of Georgia, chairman of the Committee on Elections, called up the report of the committee in the case of A. E. Redstone, claiming to have been elected from the Fifth California District, comprising a portion of San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Clara and Santa Cruz counties. The report asks that the committee be discharged from further consideration of the matter, which was agreed to.

Wilkins, Ohio, called up the Banking bill as unfinished business. An effort was made by the friends and opponents of the measure to come to some agreement by which the bill might be open to a full discussion and remove existing obstacles to its passage, but it was unsuccessful owing to the announcement by Weaver of Iowa that he would not surrender his right to antagonize the bill at any time by any means in his power. He raised the question of consideration, and the House determined by a vote of 150 yeas to 55 nays to consider the bill. Filibustering motions were then submitted. This continued for some time, when, upon motion of Wilkins, the House adjourned.

The judicial oath was administered in public immediately after the day's session opened.

The judges in their black robes filed into the chamber in solemn procession at 12 o'clock. Lamar followed into court and took a seat beside Clerk McKenny at the right of the bench. The Chief Justice announced the reading of the commission of Lamar and the administration of his oath to be his first business. The Clerk then read the commission, after which Lamar read from manuscript the judicial oath. At its conclusion he took the Bible, solemnly kissed it and was escorted behind the screen at the back of the Justices' chairs to soon reappear clad in a flowing robe of glossy black silk. The Court and assemblage arose. The new Justice bowed to his associates, then to the bar and the public, and then took his seat in the chair of the Junior Justice at the extreme left of the bench. The Court then proceeded with its ordinary business.

A New Issuance of Three Per Cents.

WASHINGTON, January 18.—Senator Farwell introduced a bill to-day authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to apply the surplus in the Treasury to the purchase of United States bonds, and to perpetuate the National banking system by providing further securities. The bill provides for the issuance of bonds in such forms and denomination as the Secretary may prescribe, redeemable after fifty years from the date of issue, bearing interest, payable semi-annually, of 3 per cent. per annum, exempt from taxation under State or municipal authority, to be used by the National Banking Association as security for their circulating notes which they are authorized to issue to the amount of 100 per cent of the par value of said bonds. Associations are authorized to deliver to the Secretary of the Treasury any outstanding bonds of the United States in exchange for these 3 per cents, receiving the money difference in the value of the bonds so exchanged. The difference is to be ascertained by taking the average premium as shown by the New York market for twenty days prior to the time of such exchange. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed at the end of each month to invest the surplus funds held in the treasury (not otherwise appropriated) in the purchase in the open market of any United States bonds which shall then be canceled and destroyed. The Treasurer is authorized to receive from any National banking association to secure its circulating notes to an amount equal in value to the coupon, registered notes to purchase any State or municipal bonds of the United States at not more than 75 per cent. of their par value, and which shall have endorsed on them the approval of the Secretary and the Comptroller of the Currency, and upon which the interest has been heretofore promptly paid, and whose market value is equal to or greater than their par value, bearing interest at a rate not less than 4 per cent, per annum. Section 6 of the bill provides that all laws relating to the establishment of a sinking fund for the payment of the public debt are hereby repealed.

Snyder, charged with the Pantano train robbery, on April 27th, to-day George Greene, a confessed confederate, gave very damaging testimony against Smart and Skidmore. The evidence was conclusive that Smith and Meyer, who were killed in an attempted Texas train robbery, were in the Pantano robbery. The case will probably go to the jury to-morrow.

A Portland Roundhouse Burns, Destroying a Number of Engines and Cars.

[Associated Press dispatches to the HERALD]

DUBLIN, January 18.—Father Matthew Ryan, the priest who was imprisoned at Limerick for a month for inciting the people to illegal acts, was released to-day. Ten thousand persons collected around the prison, and when he emerged he was received with prolonged cheers. The Mayor of the town, Sheriff, Municipal Council and many members of the clergy crowded around him and congratulated him upon his release.

The crowd escorted Father Ryan 14 miles to his parish at Herbertstown. On his arrival home he addressed the people without interference, as the police were detained at Herbertstown. He advised the tenants to adopt the plan of campaign which he said was moral and just, notwithstanding everything that the Lords, both spiritual and temporal, said to the contrary.

A BIG BLAZE.

A Railroad Building and Contents Burned.

PORTLAND, Ogn., January 18.—Early this morning the old roundhouse, belonging to the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company, caught fire and was totally destroyed. Seven locomotives in the roundhouse at the time were destroyed; also a very elegant coach, estimated to be worth $10,000 was destroyed.

The fire burned the old car-shop, machine shop and blacksmith shop. The loss will approximate $80,000, partially insured in an Eastern company. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been from a small heating stove in the coach. The loss will probably cripple the company temporarily for motive power. The buildings belonged to the Northern Pacific Terminal Company.

LATEST NEWS.

PORTLAND, Ogn., January 18.—Later particulars concerning the fire at the railroad roundhouse this morning show that the fire originated in one of the fine coaches from a patent heater placed in it to thaw it out. The original cost of the building, machinery and all was about $200,000. The machinery is a total loss. There was an insurance of only about $25,000 placed in New York. The total loss of the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company will reach over $40,000. No insurance on rolling stock.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

THREE LOCOMOTIVES RUINED.

The Same Train Meets With Another Accident on the Tehachipi. Railroad News.

From facts gathered by the HERALD'S representative at the scene of the wrecking of train No. 17, from San Francisco to Los Angeles, at Lathrop, Monday evening, it was learned that the passengers had a most narrow escape from a terrible death. The train was composed of twelve coaches, one baggage, and one mail and express car combined, and was drawn by two large and powerful engines. Three of the coaches were Pullman sleepers and the others were packed with emigrants and passengers destined for all parts of the country.

It was about 7:45 P. M. when the train rattled up to the company's yards at Lathrop, being exactly on time.

Just as the first switch was passed, there came two shrill whistles from the locomotive and then a slight bump, followed by a crash, threw several of the passengers in the forward car from their seats. When the HERALD'S representative picked himself up from under the front seat in his section, he found every man in the car starting for the door to see "what was the matter." The train was standing on a steep fill, and the passengers rolled down to the bottom in the greatest confusion. The hissing of escaping steam from the engines made a deafening noise and caused every one to wonder that they had not been killed outright. The accident was entirely the fault of the switch engine which had backed upon the main track in switching some empty passenger coaches, just at the time when No. 17 was due. Engineer Small, who was in the front engine, could not see the switch engine until too late, as there was no light to give him warning, and he barely saved his life by jumping. Before leaving his engine, however, he had the courage and presence of mind to open the automatic air-brakes, and thus prevent a horrible catastrophe. In jumping he slightly injured his knee. Engineer Levi, who was in charge of the switch engine, also saved his life by jumping, as did Engineer Taylor, of the second engine, drawing the overland. The firemen belonging to Small and Levi also jumped, but the one helping Taylor did not have time, and had he been a full-grown man, would have been crushed to death. As it was, he was caught between the tender and held for a few seconds, though he afterwards crawled out without assistance and without a scratch.

The spectacle presented by the three huge engines was terrible to behold. The switch engine had been knocked, by the force of the collision, about twenty yards down the second side-track, and had its pilot jammed under the rear platform of the coach it was moving. The rear of the engine was lifted clear of the track by the tender, which had been shoved under it. The rear trucks of the tender were knocked off, and were laying about ten feet from the track. Steam, cinders and sparks poured out of the engine with the greatest force, and blinded everyone in the neighborhood.

On the main track at the opening of the switch were the two engines which so lately had pulled the overland train.

The front one had its pilot and smoke-stack smashed by the collision, and its cab and rear end was totally wrecked by the tender, which was forced by the second engine up through the cab until it lay on top of the boiler, while the cab itself was hanging where the smoke-stack belonged.

On top of the rear end of the tender the second engine lay, with its pilot and smoke-stack smashed to splinters and its cab and wheels scattered everywhere. The tender of the second engine stood on end against the baggage-car and was a total wreck.

Old railroaders said the accident was a most wonderful one, and that it was only the presence of mind of Engineer Small that saved the loss of many lives. If the coaches, of which there were six, which the switch engine was moving, had been loaded, they would not have been thrown out of the way, and even though the automatic air brakes worked perfectly, the collsion would have been terrible, and the passenger coaches would have rolled down the fill, which was about twelve feet deep. In addition to the total loss of the three engines, the mail car was also slightly injured, and the mail clerk, Mr. Griffin, sustained some bruises, though they were not serious enough to interfere with his work.

After a half an hour's delay the train was hauled around the wrecked engine on a side-track, a freight engine attached, and the journey resumed. The foregoing accident was not to be all the trouble of the trip, however, and a second narrow escape was made. It occurred on the steepest part of the grade near Tehachipi, and recalled to mind, the heartrending disaster which occurred on the Nineteenth of January, 1882 at the same spot.

A few moments before eleven o'clock Tuesday morning, while the train was winding slowly up the grade, there came two distinct noises, as if caused by the breaking of chains. A gentleman talking at the time to the HERALD'S representative jumped to his feet and said, "there's something wrong."

At that moment a brakeman came through the car and the same noise was repeated. The gentleman and brakeman, followed by the newspaper man, started for the door, when the appalling discovery was made that the drawhead had pulled out, one chain had broken and only a few links held the train together. Again were the automatic brakes brought into use and the train came to a standstill. In a few minutes more the only connecting link would have given way and the greater portion of train gone wildly down the grade, and to almost certain destruction. A chain was procured and soon the train was again in motion, arriving at Mojave at 11 A. M., where mechanics soon repaired the drawhead and the train again proceeded, arriving in this city in the evening at 5:30 P. M., five and a half hours late.

A Proposed Road.

There has been a proposition to build a railroad through Laurel Cañon to the Encino Rancho. The grade is easier by that route and the distance less. It would be a standard gauge road, but the grade would be 150 feet to the mile in the cañon. However, this would not injure the usefulness of the road, as the heavy loads would be all this way. Sandstone and granite are plentiful on the route, and it is the nearest point where these two important building materials can be had in sufficient quantities to make it an object to build a railroad. The locations along the line are unsurpassed for healthy residences, and the country has not an inflated value. These are a few of the reasons why a road through that section would pay from the beginning of operations.

The Mail Arrives.

A few moments before six o'clock Monday evening the long-delayed Santa Fe overland train arrived, with twelve coaches, two mail and three baggage cars. It brought a large amount of Eastern mail, which is the first received via that road for seven days. All day Tuesday the postoffice employees were busy distributing it for the public. The company's officials now state that the track is clear from "end to end," and the trains will hereafter be run on schedule time.

Passenger Traffic.

The Santa Fé officials report a great rush of people to Inglewood and Redondo Beach, and state that from thirty to forty tickets are sold to Inglewood alone each day. The travel to Redondo is equally as great. With the exception of the above mentioned places, local travel is rather dull than otherwise.

Jumped the Track.

Tuesday afternoon as the Santa Monica train was approaching the Commercial street depot, on its way to Santa Monica, the locomotive struck an obstruction which threw the forward trucks of the engine off the track. Some time was lost in getting it on again, when the train proceeded to its destination.

Two New Engines.

The Southern Pacific Company has just received two new and powerful passenger engines from the shops at Sacramento. They are numbered 246 and 247, and are built with an extension front and straight smoke stack.

Frozen Poultry.

A carload of live poultry was received by the Santa Fe Company yesterday morning that came from Iowa. A great number of chickens were found dead when the coops were taken out, and it is supposed were frozen in transportation.

Clear at Last.

The Southern Pacific Company hauled a train of cars for the Santa Fe Company in from Colton yesterday morning, after which they were notified that the A. & P's road was in condition, and that they would hereafter use their own tracks.

Notes and Personals.

Mr. J. R. Gott is expected to return this morning from San Diego, where he went Monday evening.

All of yesterday's Santa Fe trains were on time, except the one from San Diego, which was a half an hour late.

The Missouri Pacific and Texas and Pacific excursion party arrived in this city yesterday in three sections, with 35 coaches.

Mr. W. D. Sandburn, Pacific Coast Agent at San Francisco for the C. B. & O. Railroad, is in the city, on his return from a month's visit to the East.

The overland train via the Santa Fe Company's road, due Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock, did not arrive until last night at 9 o'clock, being twenty-four hours late.

Mr. H. W. Vermilion, for a long time claim clerk for the local freight office of the Santa Fe Company, has resigned, and will go East. Mr. Vermilion made a most efficient employee, and his friends all wish him success where ever he goes.

THE SECOND WARD.

Cuddy's Successor as Councilman.

On next Monday the resignation of T. J. Cuddy, as a member of the Council from the second ward, will be accepted, and that gentleman will be inducted into the office of Chief of Police. There is some little discussion as to who will succeed Mr. Cuddy in the Council. Mr. R. Bilderrain, one of the proprietors of the St. Elmo Hotel and the late efficient Assessor of this county, has permitted his name to be used in this connection. Mr. Bilderrain is too well known to need eulogy, and he will do good service for his ward and for the city.

Associated Charities.

The Committee appointed at the late interesting conference of charities will be ready as appointed to report at the St. Elmo Hotel to-day at 2 P. M. It is very important that there a full attendance of representatives of the charities of the city, that the report be fully discussed and so intelligently adopted as to secure this worthy work a good send off among us.

The Grandest Water Supply in the State!

Eighteen miles up in the mountains, at an elevation of 4375 feet, a granite dam costing $130,000 is being constructed in Hemet valley, to hold the water which is supplied by the immense snow shed of Mt. San Jacinto, 10,987 feet high, Mt. Tocwish and Mt. Herke. This will form LAKE HEMET, covering 600 acres at an average depth of 65 feet, and containing 6,000,000,000 gallons, or 9000 miner's inches of water, enough to irrigate more than 100,000 acres of land. This water will be delivered in 22-inch iron pipes, under 723 feet fall. An inch of water guaranteed to every eight acres, and water right conveyed with every acre sold.

NO FOGS! NO FROST!

Unsurpassed for the finest Naval Oranges, Raisin Grapes, and all Deciduous Fruits. South San Jacinto will be the city of Northern San Diego County. Broad streets and avenues. In the center is a beautiful hill of 600 acres reserved for a park, upon which this winter 100,000 forest and ornamental trees, already purchased, will be planted, surrounded by a boulevard four miles long, 100 feet wide, with double avenue of trees. Brick hotel, brick offices and stores now being erected. $500,000 to be spent in improvements this coming year. Everything that unlimited capital can do will be done to make a model city.

Climate, Soil, Water and Capital have made Southern California, and SOUTH SAN JACINTO has them all, as no other one place has. It immediately adjoins San Jacinto 18 miles east of Perris, on the Santa Fe, and 14 miles south of San Gorgonio on the Southern Pacific, and at present reached by daily stages. The Santa Fe is now actually building direct from Perris. Get in before the railroad boom.

POMOLOGICAL SOCIETY

The Los Angeles County Pomological Society held it last meeting at the beautiful town of Glendora, January 12, 1888. This temperance town is charmingly located at the head of the San Gabriel valley, 27 miles from Los Angeles. Mr. G. D. Whitcomb, a man of means, ability, untiring energy and great public spirit, is rapidly smiting the rocks in the mountain sides, causing them to give forth copiously that life-giving fluid which, properly applied, makes all the rich soil of the valleys to blossom with almost every conceivable variety of fruits and flowers.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Hiram Hamilton, of Orange. A large and attentive audience was present to listen to Mr. Hamilton's remarks on the solid basis of the prosperity of Southern California as represented in the vineyards and orchards. Excellent music was furnished during the afternoon and evening sessions by the Glendora Glee Club. An interesting address of welcome was given by George D. Whitcomb; and was responded to by Hiram Hamilton. Fifteen new members were enrolled.

An interesting discussion was had on the crystallization of fruits. It was thought that this was destined to become an industry that would greatly advance the interests of the horticulturists of Southern California. It was thought much greater attention should be given than heretofore to drying, canning and crystalizing of fruits. If the fruit-growers combine and build their own canneries, they will reap what profit there may be had in that industry.

The curing of lemons was the next topic for discussion. The Eureka, Lisbon and Genoa were the only lemons thought desirable to cultivate. The Eureka is a thornless, sweet rind, seedless lemon, and seems to be preferable to all other varieties. It was thought lemons should be picked before fully yellowed, placed in piles on the ground under the trees, and covered with alfalfa hay or straw till they have passed through the sweating process. They are then carefully packed, with an assurance that they will keep well for months. The question of fertilization of orchards was then quite fully discussed. The general impression seems to be that there was little danger of getting any soil too rich, especially for citrus culture.

Thos. A. Garey made a financial report regarding the fair held by this society in Los Angeles last fall, showing that although it was by far the largest and best fruit exhibit ever made in Los Angeles it was not appreciated by the majority of the citizens of that place, and that although a few generous citizens contributed largely of their means, still there is quite a debt hanging over the society.

Messrs. Thomas, Fuller, Willis, Hamilton and Garey were appointed a committee to confer with the directors of the Sixth Agricultural District Fair with a view of having all the departments of that fair not connected with stock taken charge of by this society, and a proportionate amount of State appropriation turned over to this society for this purpose.

Resolved, That we request our Senators and Representatives in Congress to give their earnest aid towards the establishment and generous support of agricultural and horticultural experimental stations in the various States as contemplated under the Hatch bill, and that an especial effort be made in behalf of such a station in Southern California. The President and Secretary of this society were chosen a committee to correspond with the proper officials on this subject;

Glendora, again, was the vote on the place of next meeting, which will accordingly be held at Glendora, Thursday, April 5th. At which time and place, it was voted, Milton Thomas, of Los Angeles, will present a paper on irrigating vines and deciduous fruit trees. Mr. Hiram Hamilton, of Orange, will present a paper on alkali in soils and methods of reclamation. Mr. W. R. Barbour, of Azusa, will present a paper on cold storage; and Thomas a Garey, of Los Angeles, will present a paper on the best varities of citrus fruits, and the best methods of culture. Attention was called to the fact that the State and American Horticultural Societies hold their next meeting at Riverside, February 7th, 8th and 9th. And that the display of magnificent citrus fruits, now before the society, contributed by twenty-one different individuals in and near Gladstone, could not be excelled in quality by any fruit, no matter where grown. Therefore, the President and Secretary were appointed a committee to prepare circulars for distribution among the leading citrus fruit-growers of Los Angeles county, urging them to prepare exhibits for the Riverside fair, that Eastern friends may form some correct idea of the extent of this wonderful citrus belt.

A COOL TRAMP

Defies the People to Arrest Him Without a Warrant.

On Tuesday, Deputy Sheriff Malone, of the Azuza, came to this city. During his presence here a young tramp entered the house of a farmer named J. Hommel, at the Azuza, and no one being at home, took a suit of clothes and walked off. Mr. Hommel returned shortly afterwards and discovered the theft. Seeing the tramp a short distance away, he ran after him, but the youthful thief refused to give up the clothes, and followed him into town, where two men attempted to arrest him. The tramp picked up a couple of rocks and defied them, saying that no one dare arrest him without a warrant. He then w lked off down the road unmolested, but Deputy Sheriff Malone's nephew, James P. Bradford, hearing of the occurrence, hastily visited the Justice of the Peace and was sworn in as special constable, and then started in pursuit of the tramp. He captured him, and yesterday the Justice of the Peace sentenced the young thief to 60 days in the County Jail.

Senator Stewart on the Tariff.

Perhaps the ablest attempt yet made in the way of attacking President Cleveland's Message is that of Senator Stewart of Nevada. Unlike the utterances of his confrères of the Republican party, the remarks of the Nevadan deserve some serious attention. They do not in all cases carry their own refutation on their face. The distinguished Senator packs the pith of his attack on the Administration's views into a few pithy sentences:

The issue, as I understand it, is whether the American people have come to the conclusion that they will stop doing their own work and hire it done, and send what money we have out of the country with which to buy the necessaries of life, and leave our people without employment. I believe that nations, as well as individuals, get rich by doing their own work, and that fact is pretty well illustrated by the history of this country. Every time we have had a tariff so that we had to do our own work, we have grown rich. See what has happened since 1860. We destroyed at least $8,000,000 000 of property in the war. If I remember correctly, we had $16,000,000,000 of property in the United States in 1860. In 1870 we had over $30,000,000,000, or about $24,000,000,000 estimated on a gold basis. In 1880 we had something over $43,000,000,000 and we were then pretty nearly equal to Great Britain. A fair estimate of the value of the property of the United States to-day, according to the ratio of increase since 1860, is not less than $60,000,000,000. We are now far in excess of Great Britain. In 1860 the wealth of the United States per capita was $514. It is now over $1000. This is the result of doing our own work. There is no other visible agency to produce it.

In eight octavo pages printed as this quotation, there is little more done by the Senator than to ring changes on the above strain. In the first place, the assumption is made here, as in all other utterances from the Republican party thus far, that the Democratic programme, as outlined by the President in his message, is Free Trade. It is, of course, an unfair assumption, as there is not a word in the message of Mr. Cleveland to justify it. This Senator Stewart knows, and, so does every other Republican speaker or writer of intelligence who makes use of this unfair way of stating the issue. Mr. Cleveland was explicit in his statement, that all looked to is such a reduction of tariff as will stop the production of more revenue than an honest and properly economical management of National affairs demands. The surplus last year was a little short of $60,000,000. It is unfair to assume that any greater reduction in import duties than this is aimed at.

Then again, Mr. Cleveland plainly intimated that raw materials rather than manufactures offered the best field in which to make the desired changes. This line of policy is directly in the interest of those whose cause the Nevada Senator seems so warmly to espouse. We have a tax on wool, jute, lumber and coal. The removal of these imposts will greatly stimulate manufactures, and building. It will tend to make more work for us as a Nation, and at the same time to give us cheaper clothing, cheaper fuel and cheaper houses. How will the wage-winner be hurt by such results? So, after all, Senator Stewart is dealing like Mr. Blaine and Senator Sherman with the most insane of glittering generalties.

As to the other part of the argument, no man in America knows better than Senator Stewart that it was not the tariff of the past 30 years which has increased the wealth of the Nation. In this Senator Stewart proves too much. Mr. Gladstone is by all odds the ablest living man in dealing with economic questions. He showed a few years ago that the increase of wealth in Great Britain had been absolutely more in pounds, shillings and pence since the year 1800 than it had been in all the eighteen centuries preceding back to the date of Julius Cæsar's landing on the island. He went further in his statistics and proved that by far the greater part of this growth in wealth had taken place since 1840. Thus from the date of the Free Trade programme going into effect in England, the country increased in absolute wealth more in the aggregate than it had in all the centuries preceding that event. Is Senator Stewart prepared to say that England so prospered because of her Free Trade policy? The Senator forgot the important canon of logicians, whith is as old as Aristotle, that post hoc is not propter hoc. He falls into the same stupid blunder as the rustic in that once famous book for boys, "Sanford and Merton." The illogical boor says Tenderton steeple is the cause of Goodwin sands, as, prior to the building of the steeple, there was no such thing as Goodwin sands.

State. He ought to know the vast influence the production of the precious metals has on the value of the Nation's property. A restricted currency means a low Senator Stewart is from a mining figure value on property. A plethoric condition of the cirulating medium inflates the figures in direct ratio. North America last year produced over $100,000,000 in precious metals. The Pacific coast for 40 years has been procucing at the rate of $50,000,000 to $100,000,000 of these currency metals. Australia has produced enormous sums of the same. The past few decades have put more gold and silver in circulation in the world than ten times as many centuries did before.

America is a young country. She is receiving half a million immigrants a year into her borders. The development of her resources are unparalleled. Her machinery cuts an important figure in all this.

This making a Pandora's box of a moderate tariff scale, and a panacea for all industrial ills of the scale of tariff for surplus will not hold good.

W. C. GOUDY is a Chicagoan. He is a lawyer and has the reputation of being able in his profession. On a recent occasion at a banquet in that city Mr Goudy delivered an address on newspapers, in which he developed a theory in regard to journalism. That is his views are a mere theory in America, although prevalent in France. He wants all writers to be obliged to append their name to all aricles written by them for the press, the name to appear with the article. Mr. Goudy thinks this plan would fix responsibility so absolutely that the press would be forced to a more conservative policy in its treatment of persons. Mr. Goudy simply reveals his utter lack of profonnd thought on a profession of whose workings he is ignorant. In any community it is generally easy enough to learn who writes any given article. But the individual is sunk in the columns of a properly conducted newspaper. On all the large dailies every article passes for revision under the eyes of some responsible person. This editor or manager is supposed to be well acquainted with the policy of the paper on any given point, and it is his duty to mold all the matter into conformity with these established principles. This is what gives a paper power. The views expressed do not emanate from any individual. They are not tinged with the personal feelings of any one. They rise to a higher plane of public policy. The true newspaper man may be obliged to bitterly antagonize the views of his friend. He may feel it obligatory to bestow praise on the man he most dislikes. It is a low and unworthy use to put a newspaper to when the individual writer allows his personal spites to creep into his public utterances, and it is as debased a use of a great power to allow personal interest to be the guide of a paper in any controversy. The impersonal policy of a journal is its strength.

MR. HUMPHREYS has sent us the following criticism:

The HERALD, in its issue of January 17th, in a lengthy article, concluded that the city cannot "swap," legally, the present city hall, on Second street, in part payment for the St. Vincent lot; but in its issue of the 18th, on finding that the 180 feet on Fort street is too small, it says that that property can be swapped for the Synagogue 70-foot lot adjoining the 180-foot new city hall lot. Question—Is this consistant?

J. F. H.

Mr. Humphreys has evidently not read our article of the 18th carefully. We proposed no "swap." We suggested that the Second street property could be sold, and that the Synagogue lot could be purchased for about one-half the money the Second street property would fetch. The presumption is that the present city hall will be sold by the city when the new structure on Fort street is built. That being the case, if it is found to be desirable to have more space on the Fort street site, there would be no difficulty in selling the Second street property, and from a portion of the money derived from that sale purchasing the seventy feet of ground adjoining the new city hall site. There is none of the elements of a "swap" in that. It constitutes two clear-cut transactions—a sale and a purchase; and that too with a sure surplus left in the treasury at the end, instead of a deficit to be made up from the taxes of the people.

It will be cheering news for our citizens to learn that a company, already organized, are preparing to build a large iron pier just beyond Dead Man's Island, something similar to those in use at Coney Island, New York. It is said that it will be a double-decker, and will be built far enough out into the ocean to allow the largest steamers to land alongside and discharge passengers and freight. It will be a substantial and costly structure, and will be of incalculable advantage to this port. Its construction will be commenced about the first of March and pushed to a rapid completion, so our informant says.—[San Pedro Clipper.

That is the most cheerful news heard hereabouts for a long time. Those most interested in San Pedro harbor must do something to hold business there. At one time the HERALD was disposed to look upon this as of vital importance to this section. It does not appear to be so absolutely necessary to our well-being as it once seemed. There are several other propositions which, when carried into execution, will give Los Angeles ample harbor facilities. Despite all the skepticism of those who will not see, the day is near at hand when ship and car will be brought safely together at Santa Monica, at Redondo Beach and Los Alamitos. Still better than all these places is Old San Pedro—better of its advantages are all utilized by properly improving them. But those in interest have let San Diego take a large part of our business from our doors for the time being. This is being seen, and it is seen to be quite time to do something, and in a vigorous manner to save our commerce.

SENATOR SHERMAN, in his recent speech, said that "nine-tenths of the manufactured commodities used by American farmers are as cheap in this country as they are in England and in some cases cheaper." Senator Sherman in making such a statement fully justified Senator Voorhees' retort that the Republican party had set out on a campaign of bare-faced mendacity. The Ohio statesman will find it most difficult to get facts to bear out this glittering generality. He would have to leave out woolen fabrics and manufactures of iron. These two alone probably will upset the statement.

ADMIRAL PORTER has written a letter to the convention of American shippers, in session at Washington, urging the restoration of the merchant marine as the best method of rehabilitating the navy. Will the Admiral state how the work is to be accomplished in the face of a hostile administration?—[Tribune.

It is always very problematic what our esteemed neighbor means. In the present instance one is at a loss as to what the alleged hostility is aimed at—whether the merchant marine or the regular navy. If our esteemed contemporary will be specific on this point, and then establish its specification by showing how the hostility is manifested, it will give its readers some light.

LOS ANGELES STREET.

A Stay of Proceedings Asked by Mrs. Bigelow.

An affidavit for a stay of proceedings in the case of the city against Mrs. L. M. Bigelow was filed in Judge O,Melveny's court yesterday. This case was brought for the condemnation of land for the purpose of opening Los Angeles street, but it was agreed between both parties that the land might be taken on the payment of $12,000 to Mrs. Bigelow. When Mrs. Bigelow went to collect the money it was found that there was about $3000 short, and because she has not received this she asks a stay of proceedings. The plaintiffs claim that only $9000 in cash was to be paid over, the other $3000 being reserved as payment on other property of Mrs. Bigelow assessed for opening Los Angeles street. The work of opening this street had progressed very rapidly up to Mrs. Bigelow 's property when the stay of proceedings was asked.

REAL ESTATE.

SOUTH CUCAMONGA,

CALIFORNIA.

The Peer of Town Sites,

SITUATED ON THE

—OF THE—

Southern Pacific Railway

—ABOUT—

Forty Miles East From Los Angeles.

Among the coming towns of Southern California, no town has been laid out on a more substantial scale with a view to future growth and prosperity than South Cucamonga, San Bernardino County, Cal.

Its location is one of the most charming in the

GREAT CUCAMONGA VALLEY,

Situated on the gently sloping plain, at an altitude of 952 feet above sea level, and within full view of the grandly towering peaks of the magnificent Sierra Madre range. Old Baldy, with his superb height of 9000 feet and hoary, snow-crowned tops, and Cucamonga, with its grand height of 5000 feet, together look down in majesty on the lovely valley at their feet, where, in most charming contrast, may be seen, far as the eye can roam, orchards of oranges, lemon, lime and olive, and vineyards laden with semi-tropical fruits, and fields clad with verdure and laden with perfume.

About three miles to the west may be seen the flourishing town and colony of Ontario: to the northwest, about the same distance, the old, world-renowned Cucamonga vineyard; to the north, the fine new town of North Cucamonga; to the northeast is the village of Etiwanda, and to the southeast Riverside, Colton and San Bernardino, and immediately to the southwest is the rich and prolific Chino ranch, South Cucamonga being the great central point.

The climate in any section being dependent largely in distance from the sea-coast altitude of surface, relation to mountains and general topography and contour, these conditions are perhaps as nearly perfect in Cucamonga as can be found anywhere in the world. The distance from the sea-coast assures freedom from fog-laden sea breezes, while the atmosphere is so pure, dry and exhilerating that those suffering from asthmatic and pulmonary troubles find it most invigoratting and health restoring.

The water supply is inexhaustible, and, being from never-failing mountain springs, is absolutely pure. It is conducted in iron pipes, which are already laid throughout the streets of the town.

The soil is superior and rich sedimentary deposits, of extraordinary depth, is loose and easily worked, and retains moisture for a great length of time, requiring very little irrigation. Those who are thoroughly competent to judge have pronounced Cucamonga, taking soil and climate together, to be far superior to the famous Duarte and Riverside orange belt for raising oranges, lemons, etc., while it is entirely free from scale. The company also offers land in 10, 20 and 40-acre tracts, with water, adjoining the town site of South Cucamonga.

No new town in Southern California has brighter prospects for becoming a railroad center than South Cucamonga. Already it has two great continental lines, the Southern Pacific forming the boundary line to the South, the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe a short distance to the North, with two projected lines—one to Riverside and another to Salt Lake City.

A fine new passenger and freight depot, just completed by the Southern Pacific Railway, adds greatly to the comfort of travelers and general attractions. Over thirty trains pass through Cucamonga daily.

To secure the comfort of visitors, the fine new hotel belonging to the company has been opened under the management of a thoroughly competent hotel man. No expense has been spared in the appointments and furnishing to make it first-class in every respect, while the rates will always be reasonable.

The grounds surrounding the hotel and in the park adjoining have been tastefully laid out with all kinds of tropical shrubbery, ever-flaying fountains, etc., by an experienced landscape gardener, and over 20,000 trees have been planted in the streets of the town.

A sojourn at this pleasant hotel, where within easy reach are the picturesque mountain trails, the grandly beautiful cañon and irresistibly charming scenery of mountain, glen and valley, will be found vastly conducive to health and happiness.

SOUTH CUCAMONGA

Is no new town in the midst of an unpopulated district, but is right in the centre of the finest improved portion of the Great Cucamonga Valley, and is bound to become a business centre.

Owing to its great richness the soil produces the finest oranges and lemons grown in the State, peaches, apples, pears, figs almonds and walnuts, and the finest of wine and raisin grapes. As proof of the great fertility of this section the old Cucamonga vineyard (one of the oldest and finest in the State), adjoining Cucamonga, may be mentioned, the wines produced there having a world-renowned celebrity.

Freight received at South Cucamonga depot, for the year 1887, amounts to the enormous sum of 5,322,375 pounds; shipments from said depot for the same period, 2,039,025 pounds; thus showing the importance of this rapidly growing locality as a shipping point for the surrounding country.

A first-class livery stable will be opened immediately.

Telegraph, postoffice and express offices are already established, and the company intends shortly to erect a number of fine stores, private residences, and also contemplate the erection of a fine bank building. Lots have been set aside for school and church purposes, park and hotel grounds have been tastefully laid out, and over 20,000 trees planted on the streets of the town.

The lots are all good and perfectly level, and the company have placed them on the market at the lowest possible price, in order to enable those buying to realize a handsome profit within a short space of time. Compared with surrounding towns, there are no prices as low. In Ontario, the nearest town on the west, similarly situated lots are now selling at from $1000 to $4000.

A town backed by the extensive influence of prominent railroad officials, and such representative men as H. M. Hellman, W. H. Goucher, C. F. Smurr, T. B. Henry, John E. Jackson, A. A. Staunton, H. M. Russell, etc., whose determination it is to make it one of the most prosperous towns in Southern California, is assured.

The Cucamonga Land and Improvement Company, during the last few months, have been sparing no expense in improving and beautifying this splendid property and getting it ready for sale and being now assured of its great success as the coming town between Los Angeles and San Bernardino, have formally announced it on the market.

As the date of sale commences at 9 o'clock A. M. on and after

WEDDED.

Miss Carlota Jackson and Mr. Emile Quarre.

A BRILLIANT RECEPTION.

Married at St. Vibiana Cathedral—List of the Many Beautiful Presents.

The wedding of Emile Quarre and Miss Carlota Jackson at San Vibiana Cathedral yesterday morning, was one of the most brilliant that has taken place in Los Angeles. The contracting parties are well-known in Los Angeles, and each possesses a very large circle of acquaintances and friends. Mr. Quarre is one of the leading business men of Los Angeles, and is the senior member of the firm of Quarre & Mauldin, leading jewelry dealers. He came to Los Angeles from France about three years ago, and by his own efforts has won for himself a high position on both the social and business ladders. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Jackson, and has long occupied a place in the hearts of her associates, which no one else could fill.

The ceremony was announced to take place at 9 o'clock and at that early hour almost every seat in the building was occupied. Shortly afterward the organist played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" as the wedding party entered the church. AN IMPORTANT REPORT.

What Should be Done to Protect the City.

The special committee appointed to investigate the Fire Department has prepared the following report:

LOS ANGELES, Cal., January 18.

To the Honorable Board of Fire Commissioners:

The committee appointed by you to investigate the Fire Department, and to make suggestions looking to its improvement and to the increase of protection to the city against fire, beg to report:

First—That the 8-inch main on Main street, connected by a sufficient number of pipes with the 22 inch main on the same street, and relieved from supplying other mains, as proposed by the Water Company, will be ample, and that said main is entirely free of sediment.

Second—That the completion of the work now in hand by the Los Angeles City Water Company and the utilizing City Reservoir No. 4, as recommended, will furnish an abundant supply of water.

Third—That the numerical strength of the department is insufficient and the apparatus not enough to meet the requirements of a city of the size and importance of Los Angeles.

Fourth—That the Fire Alarm Telegraph is so inaccurate as to seriously endanger the city.

Zanjas—We have the honor to recommend that the following openings be made in zanjas made for use by the Department: At or near the Capital Flour Mills: at or near Marchessault street; at or near Aliso street crossing; at or near Commercial street; At First street, near San Pedro.

Hydrants and Mains—That the Chief Engineer be instructed to ascertain the size of connections of fire hydrants with the mains, and that such as are too small be enlarged. That no more sprinkling hydrants be connected with fire hydrants, and that all sprinkling hydrants be disconnected from fire hydrants, and connected directly with the mains. That between any two cross streets which are more than 550 feet apart a hydrant be placed near the center of the block by the city. That the 22-inch main now approaching completion in Buena Vista street, be connected with all other mains throughout the city for fire purposes. That the water in the city reservoir No. 4 be made available as a reserve for protection from a great conflagration. This can be done by connecting the reservoir with the pipe system of the "Los Angeles Water Company," through the pipes of the "Citizens" or "Hill Water Company."

That in those parts of the city dependent on small mains and zanjas, a system of cisterns be built and connected with the zanjas and mains. That three additional engines be procured, to be located on the hill near Temple street and Bunker Hill avenue, on Boyle Heights near the head of First street, and near Grand avenue and Washington street, and that these engines be provided with four-wheeled carriages, to carry 1000 feet of hose each. That hose carriage "Volunteer No. 3" be furnished with a horse. That all engines be provided with heaters, relief valves and shut-off nozzles. That all houses of the Department be altered to furnish sleeping apartments for the men.

Members—That the Chief and Assistant Engineers be Fire Wardens, and be clothed with full power to enforce all fire and building ordinances, and that the First Assistant Engineer be Fire Marshal, and required to devote his whole time to the performance of the duties of offices of Fire Marshal and Assistant Engineer. That the salary of Chief Engineer be fixed at not less than $2000 per annum. That each engine have six extra men; each hook and ladder company six extra men, and each hose company four extra men.

Fire Ordinances—That the fire and building ordinances be carefully revised.

Fire Alarm—That at the expiration of the time allowed by the contract between the city and the Richmond Company, if the system is not perfected, further time be refused the company and the system be condemned. Respectfully submitted.

ALFRED STILLMAN,
WALTER S. MOORE.

THE FOLLOWING IS AN ADVERTISEMENT
OF THE FAMOUS

BARTON RANCH!

BUT EVERY WORD IT CONTAINS IS TRUE!

And any person looking for an investment, or a home, who will do me the favor to go with me to examine the property, if they do not find everything even better than I represent it, I will return their railroad fare and all of the expense of the one day necessary to examine the property. Very respectfully,

W. P. McINTOSH,
13 SOUTH MAIN STREET, Los Angeles, Cal.

LOCATION AND DESCRIPTION OF THE BARTON RANCH.

The BARTON is located about 5 or 6 miles southeast of San Bernardino City and is adjoined by REDLANDS on the southeast, LUGONIA on the east, GLADYSTA on the north, TERRICINA on the south and OLD SAN BERNARDINO on the west.

RAILROADS AND MOTOR RAILROADS.

The San Bernardino Valley Branch of the Santa Fe R. R. that runs from San Bernardino to MENTONE, crosses the northern portion of the BARTON RANCH. The Southern Pacific passes ¾ of a mile west of the ranch. The SAN BERNARDINO MOTOR R. R. will run through the center of the Barton ranch and the BUTTON Motor will run along the north line on Colton avenue.

POINTS IN FAVOR OF THE BARTON:

SOIL, red sandy loam, adapted to the successful growing of fine oranges and all other semi-tropical fruits and grapes. The trees are now loaded with oranges, and over 250 tons of grapes were sold in 1887.

THE WATER SUPPLY

Is furnished by the old Mill-creek Zanja that was constructed by the Jesuit Fathers over 100 years ago. Water will be piped to every 40 acres.

CLIMATE.

The climate is dry and healthy, never too cold and very seldom too warm to be comfortable; nights always cool. People suffering with bronchial or any throat or lung troubles are benefitted by living at Barton or vicinity. Fogs scarcely ever drift in that far from the ocean, nearly every day being bright and sunny.

The rainfall will average about 20 inches annually. The mountain and valley view from the Barton has scarcely any equal. There is not enough frost to hurt the most tender fruits. No scale bugs or fruit pests of any kind.

Streets are all graded through the land.

PRICES AND TERMS:

The prices range from $450 to $700 per acre, including water. The ELEGANT VILLA LOTS of one-half acre each, adjoining the hotel, $1000 each, with water, of which there are but 39 altogether. The terms are ¼ cash, ¼ in 6 months, ¼ in 12 months, ¼ in 18 months, ¼ in two years. For Maps and Particulars Apply to

Santa Ynez Valley Lands

FOR SALE IN LOTS TO SUIT, FROM 10 ACRES UPWARDS.

THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD RESPECTFULLY CALL THE ATTENTION of intending purchasers to the lands of the Santa Ynez Land and Improvement Company, which is without doubt the best investment in California. These lands can be bought in any quantities desired and are as good for the cultivation of Olives, Prunes, Oranges, Walnuts, Almonds, Grapes, or in fact any fruits or vegetables that are grown in Southern California as any lands in Los Angeles county, and can be bought on reasonable terms and at a very small part of the price that would be asked for the same lands here, so that it offers one of the best opportunities to parties selling out here to reinvest. To Eastern purchasers this is one of the best opportunities to invest in lands that are bound to be worth double the price that are now asked for these within a very few months, as both the Southern Pacific and A., T. & S. F. Railroads have surveyed through the entire tract, which will double the value of these lands as soon as completed past this tract.

Descriptive Catalogue, Maps, Price and Terms furnished on appplication. Every facility will be given purchasers who would like to visit the tract before purchasing. Vehicles will be on hand to take customers over these lands and everything done to make a visit to this section agreeable.

MOROCCO.

Morocco is growing to be the sensation of the hour in real estate circles. Not in speculative ventures but in the line of actual investment for homes. Those who are developing an interest in the scheme—for many of them may be said to have Morocco on the brain, so great is their enthusiasm—are a sort of people who want to secure a home in this place which promises to take the lead of anything yet done here or elsewhere. The great attractions of the place are: First, its proximity to the city, being only six miles distant, thus affording the best opportunity for professional and business men to visit their offices daily, while residing in the most beautiful suburb of any city in the world.

The second attraction is the beauty of the surroundings. The place is in full view of mountain and sea. The city of Los Angeles forms a pretty picture in the foreground on one side, and beyond it lies the whole famous valley of San Gabriel. The scenery is unsurpassed.

As a third point may be noted the the excellent drainage the site affords. It lies high on the mesa and no refuse moisture can lie near there. The climate is perfect, being in the thermal belt of the Cahuenga foothills, where frost is an unknown quantity. The past cold nights have passed over that favored spot and left no trace of frost on any part of it.

Then there is the really magnificent plan on which the site is to be laid out. There is to be no 50-foot lot business in Morocco. The smallest building lot will be a full acre of land. The streets will be all 100 feet wide. They will be graded, side-walked and aligned with the choicest trees and shrubs. Plenty of water, three means of reaching the city by cars every hour, building stone in the immediate vicinity and scores of features of less consideration added to those of more magnitude, will all combined make Morocco the most beautiful suburb ever planned to any city.

The matchless enterprise and generosity of the good people of Monrovia is illustrated by the establishment of a "tally-ho" coach line between this city and the city of Monrovia, making tri-weekly trips on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, commencing Monday, January 23, 1888; leaving Los Angeles at 8:30 A. M., arriving in Monrovia at 11 A. M., and returning the same day, leaving Monrovia at 3 A. M., and arriving in this city at 5:30 P. M. The coaches to be used are handsomely equipped four-in-hand, and the reins are in the hands of experienced drivers, and will afford passage for 28 persons on each trip. En route the excursions will pass through the finest improved section of the San Gabriel Valley. The famous Sunny Slope vineyards and orchards of L. J. Rose, the beautiful Chapman rancho and magnificent estate of E. J. Baldwin the Rancho Santa Anita, of which all have heard. Arriving at Monrovia an increasing entertainment will commence with the good people of Monrovia as "hosts" One will enjoy themselves immensely. A future worth mention is that all parties will be furnished a fine dinner at the Grand View Hotel, the best hotel in the county, free of charge. Returning by way of the famous Old Mission, San Gabriel, at which point a stop will be made of a few moments to allow those who wish a few moments in this quaint old building, constructed a century ago by the forefathers of California, and before the shades of night all will arrive in the city after having enjoyed one of the pleasantest drives in the world having been nicely entertained and all passage and dinner included, will cost our passengers and guests nothing. Coach leaves our office, 114 West First street Los Angeles, at 8:30 A. M., commencing Monday, January 23d, 1888, and inquire at the office for passage.

The Bon Ton Bath Rooms

The bath rooms, which are noted for their cleanliness, are all newly enameled, and to really enjoy a most luxurious bath, hot or cold, with shower, one must try these. The proprietor has likewise especially put up elegant new enameled baths for ladies and children. BON TON, 235 and 237 North Main street.

Duarte.

A trip to Duarte, a drive through its orchards, is necessary to all Eastern visitors. They will then know what has given its oranges their fame and its foothills the palm for attractive scenery. No spot equals it in capacities for beautiful homes, yet property is held at less than one-third of its neighbors, prices. All trains on the Atchison railroad stop at station.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Review of the New York Stock and Petroleum Market.

NEW YORK, January 18.—The stock market showed about the usual amount of business to-day, but beyond the Oregon stocks, Union Pacific and Reading, there was absolutely nothing of interest in trading. The traders made a sharp dash at Reading at the early morning session, and forced it down from a fraction only, and the movement had little or no effect on the remainder of the list, and it was soon over. The President's message, with the make up of the special committee, had a further favorable effect upon the Union Pacific, and the Northern Pacific will settle the Oregon Navigation lease to-morrow. The last named stock was unusually strong, the influence of which was felt in Oregon Transcontinental, in which the buying was very good. The Oregon Improvement continued its advances on advices from Boston that the preferred stock was likely to be taken. A majority of the list are fractionally lower to-night, but changes of little significence except a gain of 2½ in Oregon. Imp, two per cent in Oregon Navigation and 1¾ in U. S. Express. Governments dull, steady. Trading in petroleum exchange was comparatively light to-day, but confidence practically restored and p rt of yesterday's loss was recovered. Opening was strong at 87¼; but bears h mme ed the market in the first hour and forced the price down to 86½ It rallied easily however, and was generally firm, although several attempts were made to depress it. In the last hour it advanced sharply and closed strong at 88⅝. Sales, 3,494,000 barrels.

CATARRH.

The term Catarrh is applied to a peculiar disorder of the nostrils and adjacent parts which prevails to an alarming extent, and is productive of very serious consequences.

The most prominent and characteristic feature is a morbid discharge from the head, varying in its nature at different times.

In some there is an almost constant flow of clear, acrid fluid, but oftener an offensive, purulent or muco-purulent, greenish yellow matter is secreted, which accumulates in the nostrils or drops into the throat, necessitating its frequent removal by blowing the nose or expectoration, and often by both processes. Sometimes patients feel as though their whole head was in a state of rottenness, so great is the amount of matter discharged and so fœtid is its odor. The patient is greatly annoyed by the constant dropping into the throat of the morbid matter from the head, and as a recumbent position naturally favors the flow downward, his rest is frequently disturbed from this cause. Many sufferers are obliged to lie with the head very much elevated in order to sleep with some degree of comfort.

In others, a tough, viscid and offensive phlegm collects behind and above the soft palate, in the passage between the throat and head, adhering to the parts with gluish tenacity. Its lodgment embarrasses respiration and creates a sensation of irritation and uneasiness in the affected locality, which gives rise to a constant and almost irresistible desire to relieve the discomfort by drawing the mucus into the throat so as to reject it by the mouth. This practice, popularly known as "hawking," is characteristic of Catarrh, and proves as embarrassing to the one affected, as it is disagreeable to those around him.

Again, the offensive matter hardens and deposits itself on the membrane in the shape of dry, hard concretions, which are discharged by the way of the nostrils or throat in lumps or fragments of a deep green tint. In some cases these incrustations accumulate to such an extent as to form a regular plug in the nose, which obstructs breathing and produces serious discomfort. So firmly do these incrustations adhere to the point of attachment that their removal usually requires the most violent efforts and not unfrequently they have to be torn from the membrane. Occasionally a solid cast of notable size is expelled on which there are generally traces of blood, but in some cases the cast presents a tubular appearance, being of exact shape of the nasal cavity. This condition is indicative of ulceration, which, in time, may destroy the bony structur of the nose and produce a subsequent flattening of that organ.

Cases are occasionally met with in which a thick, viscid, slimy secretion coats the membrane of the nasal cavities and then putrefies, giving rise to a stench which is really overpowering, and sufficiently fetid to poison the atmosphere of a whole room, and there are others in which all secretions of the membrane are suspended, causing an unpleasant feeling of dryness, heat, and feverishness in the head and nose—a condition popularly known as "Dry Catarrh."

The disease speedily extends to the air cavities of the bones of the forehead and face, giving rise to a distressing sensation of heavy weight or compression over the forehead, especially in the region above and between the eyes, and to a feeling of fullness, heat, irritation, soreness or pain in the nostrils near the root of the nose, as well as in the upper part of the throat, above, and behind the soft palate. Sometimes there is pain obstinately fixed in some particular part, as in the temples, on the top of the head, at the back of the neck, or behind the orbits, and, occasionally, pain manifests itself in the face of so severe a character that it is frequently mistaken for neuralgia.

The breath is always tainted and at times assumes an exceedingly fetid and sickening odor. In some cases it becomes so revoltingly offensive as to render the sufferer an object of disgust to himself as well as to others.

The nasal membrane is thickened and congested, causing the nose to be stopped up, sometimes on one side, sometimes on the other, and often on both, giving rise to a disagreeable stuffy sensation in the head, and occasionally to violent and prolonged paroxysms of sneezing.

The voice is weak, indistinct and husky, or of a nasal character, displaying a sort of sniffling quality. Oftentimes there is a continuous hoarseness and discordance. There is also a sense of irritation in the throat, and frequent attempts to clear the parts of phlegm, producing the sound "hem" more or less forcibly. In some cases patients complain of an uncomfortable feeling of fullness, or a choky sensation in the throat, and in others of a distressing and almost constant dryness, for the temporary relief of which they have to swallow frequently. Others again speak of a constant bad or nauseous taste in the mouth and throat.

The stomach generally suffers more or less and becomes weak and irritable; the appetite is capricious and nearly always bad in the morning. The patient is languid, unable to perform mental or physical labor with the usual facility, is nervous, depressed in spirits, at times, fearful, timid, agitated, and inclined to drowsiness and sleep; the memory weakened and permanent impairment seriously threatened.

The mucous membrane soon becomes morbidly sensitive to unfavorable influences, and, in spite of the utmost care, becomes affected from the slightest causes, so that at last a breath of wind upon the lining of the nose or throat becomes productive of a cold, and gives rise to serious disturbances of the respiratory organs. Thus the patient is subject to frequent a d repeated colds, each attack aggravating the disease by giving it a new impulse, and involving a larger extent of surface than its predecessor. In this manner the difficulty spreads from organ to organ, invading the throat larynx, trachea and bronchial tubes, until, encroaching further and further, it reaches the finer ramifications of the bronchi, when but a slight impulse is required to send it to the lungs. Catarrh may, and often does, affect other organs in the body, especially those containing a mucous membrane, such as the Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys, &c.

Thus catarrh becomes the starting point of consumption development, the disease being eventually transmitted to the lungs, both by nervous connection and continuity of surface

So frequently has this fatal course been noticed that all those who are thoroughly conversant with the subject now look upon catarrh as a premonition and one of the very earliest manifestations of consumption.

Inhalations are applicable in all diseases of the respiratory organs, but must be prepared for each individual case as they severally require.

Persons desiring treatment by this system of practice can use the remedy at home as well as at our office, and which will cause no inconvenience or hindrance to business whatever.

I have seen so many of these cases cured that I do not consider any case hopeless unless both lungs are seriously involved. Even then the inhalations aid us in dissolving the mucus and in contracting and healing the cavities, which nothing else can do with the same success. The very best references from those already cured.
